Applicant’s Declaration and Authority

Please read each of the following statements carefully and ask your solicitor to explain anything you do not understand before signing this declaration.

- This is a true statement of my personal and financial circumstances.
- I understand that if I give false information to the Scottish Legal Aid Board (“SLAB”), I may be prosecuted.
- I understand that SLAB can make any enquiries and get any information it needs to deal with this application.
- I agree to SLAB obtaining and/or checking information with others such as my employer, banks, credit reference agencies, the Department for Work and Pensions and HM Revenue and Customs and I authorise those people/organisations to provide the information they are asked for.
- I understand that I must tell you immediately if there are any changes in my or my partner’s financial circumstances including a change in benefits. Failure to notify changes may lead to my legal aid being revoked and I may be prosecuted. I may also be liable to pay the costs of my case.
- I agree to the disclosure of the application, associated documentation and my case file held by my solicitor, to SLAB for audit and/or quality assurance.
- SLAB may use the information I or my solicitor have provided on this form, or otherwise provide, for the prevention and detection of fraud.
- SLAB may share this information with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds for these purposes. I consent to SLAB disclosing my personal data to other organisations.
- I agree that all of the above consents and agreements will be effective for a period of not less than five years from the date of signature and any further reasonable period thereafter as SLAB considers appropriate for their requirements.

Important information about your personal data

The Scottish Legal Aid Board (SLAB) is a data controller. The personal information provided by you will be used in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 and for our functions under the Legal Aid (Scotland) Act 1986.

SLAB may receive information about you from certain third parties (for example, some government departments and agencies), or give information to them. However we will not pass on information about you unless the law allows or requires us to do so. We will retain the personal information we hold about you in accordance with the requirements of our retention schedule then destroy or delete it in a secure manner.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 you have the right to make a formal request in writing to see the personal information we hold about you, to inspect it and to have it corrected if it is wrong. In addition you may also have rights to have your data erased or have your data moved. You may be able to object to processing if you believe it to be unlawful and subject to lawful restrictions. Where SLAB are responsible for unlawfully processing or disclosing your personal data and it is likely to cause a high risk to your rights and freedoms we will make you aware of this. To request your personal data you should write to SLAB’s Data Protection Officer. If you are unhappy with the response you get from the Data Protection Officer and wish to complain you should write to the Director of Corporate Services and Accounts.
